

DISCOVERY & INVENTION

Children experience active learning environments where discovery, problem solving, imagination, and creativity are encouraged and purposefully planned.

Educators encourage each child's experimentation and discovery in learning environments that reflect their cultural and social backgrounds.

NOVA SCOTIA

Prepared by the Department of
Education and Early Childhood
Development, March 2021