

WELL-BEING

Children experience safe, secure environments where their social, emotional, and physical well-being are nurtured and supported.

Educators support each child's sense of well-being in learning environments where responsive relationships, community, and cultural connections are valued.

NOVA SCOTIA

Prepared by the Department of
Education and Early Childhood
Development, March 2021