

ADDRESSING ANTI-BLACK RACISM IN EARLY LEARNING AND CHILD CARE PROGRAMS

May 2nd, 2026

9:00 am- 4:00 pm

NSCC Truro Campus
36 Arthur Street

This session is intended for those who do not have lived experience of anti-Black racism and is designed to support those interested in becoming a more thoughtful and effective ally by learning how to create welcoming environments for students, staff, children, and families of African Ancestry. Participants will gain knowledge and skills to recognize and address anti-Black racism.

BECAUSE WE MATTER

May 30th, 2026

9:00 am- 4:00 pm

NSCC Akerley Campus
21 Woodlawn Road

This is a specialized healing session specifically designed for pedagogical leaders and educators of African ancestry, that provides intentional care, by centering their unique needs while acknowledging and responding to the harm caused by anti-Black racism through culturally grounded, affirming supports.
