

Education Week 2019

Inclusive Education

Helping our students and children succeed

April 14 to 20

We want to recognize educators and school support staff who have gone above and beyond in providing inclusive supports to students, make them feel welcomed, appropriately challenged, and supported in their efforts. Within an inclusive education, learning environments are fostered where individual needs are met and every student and child has an opportunity to succeed.

Proudly sponsored by:

Partners: